

Family Day 2021 – Young Historians Oral History Project Informed Consent

1. You are being asked to participate in an interview in connection with the Young Historians Oral History Project for Family Day 2021 with the Cranbrook History Centre (CHC). You are being asked to participate because you have been a member of the community of Cranbrook, British Columbia, Canada during the year 2020. You will be asked to share your memories and experiences with the CHC related to the COVID-19 Global Pandemic. A list of questions will be provided. You have the right to answer any or all of these questions at your discretion. You have the right not to answer any of the questions should you consider them uncomfortable or inappropriate. With your permission, a photograph of you will also be taken during the Project.
2. This interview will be recorded on February 13, 2021. Should you feel that more time is needed to complete the interview, arrangements can be made to extend the interview at your convenience. Once the interview is complete, it will be transcribed and edited for readability in accordance with the CHC's policies and procedures. Once the interview is complete you will have the opportunity to place restrictions on access and reproduction of the interview if you so desire.
3. Your participation in this interview is completely voluntary and you are free to withdraw consent and cease all participation in this interview at any time without any consequences whatsoever. During the interview you may request to stop the recording at any time to discuss or clarify how you wish to respond to a question or topic before proceeding. In the event that you choose to withdraw during the interview, any recording(s) made of the interview will be either given to you or destroyed, and no transcript will be made of the interview.
4. Others may benefit from the knowledge you provide in this interview for the CHC's oral history collection. There is no cost to participate in this interview and you will not be paid for your time; you will, however, receive a digital copy of your interview.
5. The recordings, transcripts, photographs, research materials, and memorabilia (collectively called the "Donation") will be maintained by the CHC in its Archives and made available in accordance with general policies for research and other scholarly purposes. The Donation may be made available online bound by the restrictions for use placed on the Donation as detailed above.
6. The CHC will be granted all right, title, and interest in the Donation, including the literary rights and the copyright. You shall retain the right to copy, use, and publish the Donation in part or in full.
7. If you have questions about the project or procedures, or your rights as a participant in research you can contact Honor Neve, Chief Curator (250) 489-3918, curator@cranbrookhistorycentre.com.

Oral History

The Cranbrook History Centre aims to preserve the history of the East Kootenay through the recollections of those who have contributed to the history, culture and stories of the land and people. We believe in the power of history to ignite the imagination, stimulate curiosity, provide enjoyment, and engage communities through authentic programming, research, and dynamic displays. The Cranbrook History Centre brings the stories of the past to life from the perspectives of the women, men, individuals, and families of our community, as recorded in their own words.
